Case 32254 - Fred Launage, Plans to Write Book

1. Launage recently wrote a letter to former DD/P sponsors via a sterile Post Office Box facility, that he plans to write a book. Launage indicated that he needs some guidance concerning that portion of the book which covers his tenure with CIA overseas.

2. As you know, the writing of books is a sore subject around Headquarters. It is requested that you contact Launage at your earliest convenience to determine exactly what he has in mind. We would also like to review any material on the book which he may be able to provide. Should there be questions which cannot be resolved on-the-spot, DD/P will be glad to finance Subject's trip to Washington, D. C., where the matter can be discussed in more detail - if this action, in your opinion, is deemed necessary.
